

Nicole Smith

Nicole Smith is a Barrister practising in New Zealand. She is a Fellow of AMINZ and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a member of the AMINZ Arbitration Panel and sits on the AMINZ Council.

She specialises in arbitration and dispute resolution, sitting as an arbitrator and adjudicator and also acting as an advocate. She is also a solicitor (admitted in England and Wales) acting as a consultant to Keystone Law (UK). She spent 12 years in London, including 9 years in the international arbitration group at Clifford Chance.

Many of her cases involve an international element; acting for NZ based companies with an international presence. Nicole specialises in cross-border trade disputes, finance, energy, construction and environmental/climate change issues. She is also a member of the ICC Taskforce on Arbitration of Climate Change Related Disputes and is an Editor of the ICC Taskforce Report on National Procedures for Recognition and Enforcement of Awards under the New York Convention.
